

Performing Company Auditions
Ballet Virginia International
Saturday, May 09, 2009
BVI Studios
10:30 - 12:00

High school aged intermediate/advanced level dancers are invited to audition for BVI's Performing Company. The Performing Company provides pre-professional training designed to prepare a dancer for a professional career or a university program. A weekly schedule includes technique classes in Ballet, Pointe and Variations supplemented by Modern, Jazz and Body Alignment. Additionally, rehearsals are scheduled four days a week in preparation for the performing season of four performances. Many of the dancers also prepare for the Young American Grand Prix competition held in the spring.

Strong pointe work is required! An audition fee of $20.00 will be charged. Present Performing Company members are required to re-audition at no charge.

Please contact Janina Michalski Bove or Suzanne Lownsbury Long with any questions. They may be reached at the Ballet Virginia studio, (757)446-1401.
